Call to Worship

“Rain Down”

Jaime Cortez

Rain down; rain down; rain down your love on your people.

Rain down; rain down; rain down your love, God of life.

Opening Sentences

Elder Bill Walters

Leader: Welcome to the worship of the Lord! Hear the words of Jesus as he calls us today: “Come to me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart and you will find rest for your souls.” This morning God encourages us to come in all candor and honesty. Leave no burdens, cares, or pain behind. Bring it into God’s presence as he welcomes us.

People: We come honestly before God; we find new healing when we are free to express our laments to him.

Leader: People of God, in whom do you trust?

People: Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Leader: Grace, mercy, and peace to you in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

“God of Our Life”

SANDON

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, forgive our hearts consumed with selfish gain. Turn our hearts toward love for others. Forgive our eyes gazing at worthless things of this world. Turn our eyes toward your presence, your action, within us and around us. Forgive our hands that push people away. Turn our hands to welcome the stranger, the outcast, the enemy. Forgive feet kicking up dust on dead-end roads. Turn our feet onto your path of righteousness and life. By the grace of our forgiving, transforming Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, forgive us, turn us, O God. Amen.

(The Prayer of Confession is adapted from a prayer found at “Spacious Faith.”)

Prayer for Illumination

Blessed are you, God of all creation. You spoke in the beginning, and all things came to be. You spoke, and your Word came to live with us, full of grace and truth. Bless this place where we would hear your voice. Bless this place where we would hear your story. As we listen, may our ears be attuned to you. As the Word is spoken, may you speak to us. May all we hear lead us to you; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Sermon

Dr. Philip K. Gladden

“A Summer in the Psalms: When Hope Despairs and Despair Hopes”

Within our personal and shared isolation we ask: “Where are you, God, I can’t feel you near me?”

We come in faith and hope that you will hear our questions and will turn towards us.

Within our personal and shared distress we ask: “How long will you be gone far from me?”

We come, trusting in our past experiences of your goodness, and look ahead in anticipation of your love.

Within our faith and hope we ask: “Wherever you are, God, look on us all with love and come near to us; so that we may grow in trust, that your unfailing love is confirmed for us.”

We come, to sing and celebrate your enduring and patient love, O God, who knows our fears and despair, and who answers our fear-filled questions in ways we can understand. Together we rejoice and sing about your goodness and mercy, our faithful God. Amen.

*The Affirmation of Faith: The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

SUMMER SERMON SERIES

A Summer in the Psalms

The Book of Psalms is the Hebrew hymnbook. These songs of praise continue to speak to us today. In the psalms, we hear people of faith express their greatest longings, their deepest joys, their bewildered questions, their wonderful praise, and their loyal faith in God.

During June - August, we will spend “A Summer in the Psalms.” You are invited to read and pray through the selected psalms this summer as you prepare for Sunday worship. You are also invited to our Wednesday morning Bible study (10:00 a.m., Room 304, across from the Music Room) at which the psalm for the following Sunday is discussed.
