Choral Call to Worship

Amy Grant, 1984

“Thy Word Is a Lamp unto My Feet”

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

When I feel afraid, and I think I've lost my way, still you're there right beside me.

Nothing will I fear as long as you are near. Please be near me to the end.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

Opening Sentences

Elder Bill Walters

Leader: The heavens are telling the glory of God.

All: May our worship reflect God's glory.

Leader: The firmament proclaims God's handiwork.

All: May we see each other as the handiwork of God.

Leader: Let our prayer and praise, our singing and proclamation show the love of God.

All: We commune with Christians around the world, with Christians throughout time.

Leader: With Christians across geography and across time,

All: Let us worship God!

*Hymn #370

“This Is My Father's World”

TERRA BEATA

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

The author of the text in this hymn referred to his morning walks as “going out to see my Father's world.”

The tune created for these words is based on an English melody the composer learned from his mother when he was a boy.

Annual 2009.*

*Unison Prayer of Confession (Inspired by Psalm 19)

*O God, with hearts of sorrow we come before you to confess what you already know — we have failed to keep your laws. Again and again, we have followed our own selfish will, rather than your holy and life-giving will for our lives. We have twisted your decrees and institutions to suit our preconceptions and interests rather than your own. Forgive us, O God, and cleanse us from hidden faults, that the words of our mouths, and the meditations of our hearts, may be acceptable to you, our Rock and Redeemer. Amen.

*Responsive Assurance of Pardon (based on Colossians 2:13-14)

Leader: God shows steadfast love and blesses to the thousandth generation those who walk in God's ways.

All: In love, God sent Jesus to bless and redeem God's people. God forgives us our sins and restores us to new life. Let us rejoice in God's mercy.

“The Majesty and Glory of Your Name”

*When I gaze into the night skies and see the work of Your fingers;
The moon and stars suspended in space. Oh, what is man, that You are mindful of him?
You have given man a crown of glory and honor,
And have made him a little lower than the angels. You have put him in charge of all creation:
The beasts of the field, the birds of the air, the fish of the sea.
But what is man that You are mindful of him.*

O Lord, our God, the majesty and glory of Your name transcends the earth and fills the heavens.

*O Lord, our God, little children praise You perfectly, and so would we.
Alleluia, Alleluia! The majesty and glory of Your name. Alleluia, Alleluia!*

Prayer for Illumination

God of light, by the power of your Word, shine on us far enough ahead that we may move into the future that you have prepared for all of us. Amen.

Here are the original lyrics to Haydn's "The Heavens Are Telling":

Chorus

The heavens are telling the glory of God. The wonder of his works displays the firmament. To day, that is coming, speaks it the day; the night, that is gone, to following night. In all the land resounds the word, never unperceived, ever understood.

Franz Josef Haydn wrote the oratorio The Creation across 2 years in 1797 and 1798. An Oratorio is a large sacred concert piece written for orchestra, choir, and soloists that represent characters from Bible stories. They became popular in the early 17th-century Italy partly because of the success of opera and the Catholic Church's prohibition of spectacles during Lent. Oratorios became the main choice of music during that period for opera audiences.

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him all creatures here below;
Praise Him above ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

*Prayer of Dedication

The Affirmation of Faith (from "A Declaration of Faith" of the PCUSA)

We acknowledge one God alone, whose demands on us are absolute, whose help for us is sufficient. That One is the Lord, whom we worship, serve, and love. God created the worlds that are and upholds and rules everything. We affirm that the universe exists by the power of God's Word and Spirit. God has chosen to give it reality out of the love we have come to know in Christ. God still works through the processes that shape and change the earth and the living things upon it. We acknowledge God's care and control in the regularity of the universe as well as in apparently random happenings. There is no event from which God is absent and his ultimate purpose in all events is just and loving. That purpose embraces our choice and will surely be accomplished. The Creator works in all things toward the new creation that is promised in Christ. In Christ God gave us a glimpse of the new creation he has already begun and will surely finish. Jesus is Lord! He has been Lord from the beginning. He will be Lord at the end. Even now he is Lord.

*Hymn #39

"Great Is Thy Faithfulness"

FAITHFULNESS

The choral benediction is a 21st-century adaptation of the traditional Celtic prayer style known as a lorica, which translates from Latin as 'armor' or 'breastplate.' This benediction prayer is based on an example attributed to St. Patrick.
