Candlelight Communion Service

Wednesday, December 24, 2014

Dear Friends,

In Luke's Christmas story we read, "And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!'" (Luke 2:13-14)

Throughout December we will have numerous opportunities to praise God and say, "Glory to God in the highest heaven!" I invite and encourage you to be in worship on Sunday, December 7 as we celebrate, give thanks for, and retire our blue Presbyterian hymnals which we have used for twenty years and celebrate, welcome, and dedicate our newest Presbyterian hymnal, Glory to God.

During worship on the Sundays of Advent and on Christmas Eve, our LOGOS children and youth will tell us the story of Christmas with narration, scripture readings, prayers, drama, and lighting the Advent wreath.

On the first three Thursdays of December, we will gather for worship in the sanctuary at 12:05 p.m. to hear from our community Advent speakers and sing "Glory to God!" Following worship we will enjoy a delicious lunch in the Fellowship Hall.

On Wednesday night, December 24, we will again gather in the sanctuary at 7:00 p.m. for our Christmas Eve Candlelight Communion worship service. It is my tradition to preach from the second chapter of Luke on Christmas Eve. Somehow the story never gets old! All of the Christmas story characters will gather around the Advent wreath that night as we light the Christ candle and sing "Glory to God!"

The gospel of John has no Christmas story, at least not one with shepherds and wise men. However, John does tell us, "And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14)

That is what our worship is all about during the Advent and Christmas seasons -- praising God and singing "Glory to God!"

Join us for worship during Advent and on Christmas Eve! I look forward to seeing you and singing "Glory to God!" with you.

In Christ,

Phil

We have a new door at the Wallace Presbyterian Church!

In our ongoing efforts to provide a safe and secure place for the children at the Wallace Presbyterian Church, a new door has been installed in the hallway near the rear entrance to the church office building. The hallways surrounding the PEP (Presbyterian Enrichment Program) classroom will be secured by locking the doors between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 12 noon Monday-Friday.

We may all have to learn some new habits and navigation patterns as we make our way from the Fellowship Hall to the Church Office building. However, this new door will enhance the security of our cherished children and their teachers.

Thanks for your cooperation! Come see the new door!

The LOGOS children would like to say a BIG "THANK YOU" to the congregation for your Operation Christmas Child donations. The LOGOS kids packed 22 shoeboxes for OCC! Thank you for giving so generously to this program sponsored by Samaritans Purse. This will enable 22 children to have a Christmas. Thank you for sharing in this ministry.
