WALLACE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Dr. Philip K. Gladden, Minister

FEBRUARY 2016

Cheryl Brinkley, Editor

You are invited to the annual
Presbyterian Women

Mission & Issues Covered Dish Luncheon and Program.

Sunday, February 28, 2016

12:15 p.m.

Mr. Penn Croom, Development Director for Duplin Christian Outreach Ministries in Wallace, will be our mission speaker. DCOM celebrated its 10th anniversary on July 5, 2015. Mr. Croom will update us on how the ministry has grown over the years, the many different services now provided in our community, and how our congregation can continue to support this important outreach to our neighbors.

Dear Friends,

The season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 10, and extends forty days (not counting Sundays) until Easter. The number "40" reminds us of Israel's forty years wandering in the wilderness and Jesus' forty days in the wilderness being tempted by the devil. Lent is a time for us to reflect on the meaning of Jesus' life, ministry, and death for our own lives and purpose.

During Lent I will preach on the theme "Who Do You Say That I Am?" and the choir will sing selections from Lloyd Larson's composition of the same name. In the weeks leading up to our Easter celebration, we will hear the stories of John the fisherman, Peter the disciple, Mary the sister of Lazarus, Pontius Pilate the Roman governor, and Joseph of Arimathea. On Easter Sunday, we will hear the resurrection story from John 20, when Mary Magdalene meets the risen Lord in the garden.

I have listed my sermon texts for the different Sundays in Lent elsewhere in this newsletter. I encourage you to spend some time in God's Word each week as part of a Lenten spiritual discipline. Read the stories of these people who loved Jesus and wrestled with their own answer to his question, "Who do you say that I am?" As you read their stories and worship during Lent, ask yourself, "Who do I say that Jesus is?" That is the question that determines everything else about our lives.

Lloyd Larson writes about his music, "It is my prayer that this work will encourage choirs and congregations to reaffirm their belief in and devotion to Christ. . .As you experience the story of grace and sacrificial love through this work, may your response to the claims of Christ echo the response of the Roman officer standing near the cross as Jesus died: 'Truly, this was God's Son!'"

In Christ,

Phil

The Prayer Shawl Ministry has completed their first year. Our first anniversary was January 18. We had a meeting at the home of Dottie Obenour and also celebrated!

In the first year 50 prayer shawls were made. We gave away:

| 32 prayer shawls | 3 prayer pockets |
| 1 lap blanket | 3 baptism shawls |
| 2 afghans | |
| 15 prayer pockets to 2015 Confirmation Class | |

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY IN 2015!

Thanks to your generous contributions, our church treasurer, Wayne Casteen, reported to the session in January that we finished 2015 with a budget surplus of approximately $27,000. In the fall of 2014, the session agreed that, if there was a surplus at the end of 2015 and if possible, we would make additional benevolent contributions to different ministries.

At the January 19 session meeting, the decision was made to use $12,500 of the surplus funds to make the following contributions: $10,000 to the Presbytery of Coastal Carolina (supports youth and Christian Education activities; mission and outreach programs; provides multiple resources for congregations throughout southeastern North Carolina); $1,250 to Duplin Christian Outreach Ministries (our local crisis ministry center); and $1,250 to Friends of Kirkwood (a non-profit group of Presbyterians who work with the Wilmington Family YMCA to operate Camp Kirkwood).
