Come to the Waters

by

Judy Record Fletcher

Presented by Hilda Miller

If you are not a member of Presbyterian Women but would like to join, please contact Joyce Ange or Nettie Batchelor. We have three Circle groups that meet. Two meet in the morning and one at night. One of these groups will meet with your schedule. We would love to have you join us.

Dear Friends,

During Confirmation 2015, our middle school youth made a video that I showed to the session. In the video, each of the young people answered two questions — “Why do you want a youth space at the church?” and “Why do you want a youth ministry worker?” The soundtrack was the group’s theme song, “10,000 Reasons.” They didn’t give 10,000 reasons for wanting a youth space and a youth worker, but they gave thirteen compelling reasons.

The youth space, located upstairs in the Currie Building, is in process. Some young people and adults have applied a fresh coat of bright blue paint. New bean bag chairs provide comfortable seating (donated by families supporting their favorite college teams). Zach Casteen has made a beautiful cabinet. The Creech family is donating a large sofa. The beautiful banner that Sandy Miller made for Confirmation Sunday will hang on the wall. A specially commissioned piece of artwork by Hope Smith was given by Curt and Regina Simpson.

Now, our young people are going to have a youth ministry leader. The session has accepted a gracious offer from Jenna Carriker to be the volunteer coordinator of our youth ministry program. Jenna will soon become a member of the Wallace Presbyterian Church (transferring from the Topsail Presbyterian Church). She has extensive experience as a preschool teacher and a youth leader. She was director of youth ministries at the Topsail Church.

Some of our youth and adults already know how talented Jenna is in youth ministry. She was our Children/Youth leader at this year’s Sound Retreat. She also organized the wonderful multi-church Vacation Bible School at Camp Kirkwood in June. She has been actively involved with youth ministry at the presbytery level. Jenna has a plan, the energy, the vision, and a great love of young people.

Over the years our church has been blessed with many volunteers who have worked faithfully with our high school youth. Their influence continues to make a difference in the lives of young adults. I still hear stories from folks who are now in their 30’s and 40’s about their youth group experiences at WPC. Our church also has a strong history of youth going to Montreat and Triennium and being involved with the Presbytery Youth Council.

The session is excited about this new chapter in youth ministry at WPC. I’m sure Jenna will be calling on many of us in the coming months to help nurture our young people in their developing faith. I commend her and her work to you and ask you to support her with your prayers, your hospitality, and your willing involvement.

We have a wonderful group of children and youth at WPC. Let’s do everything we can to support them and love them as the special children of God that they are.

In Christ,

ACTIONS OF THE SESSION

At the Tuesday, July 21, 2015 meeting of the session, the elders and minister:

- * were led in an opening devotional and prayer by Elder Susie Bullard;
- * conducted the meeting as a worship service;
- * studied God’s Word in John 3:1-21;
- * approved minutes from the May 19, 2015 stated meeting and June 14, 2015 called meeting;
- * ratified a decision made earlier by e-mail to authorize the celebration of the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper at the wedding of Ellie Wells and Michael Newton on July 17, 2015, with Dr. Philip Gladden and Elder Dave Wells administering the sacrament;
- * appointed Nick and Lee Baker as sponsors for Astrid Pepper Schwartz who would be baptized on Sunday, July 26;
- * endorsed a grant application from our Helping Hands Food Pantry to the Hunger Program of the Presbytery of Coastal Carolina;
- * heard a report from the June 11, 2015 meeting of the Presbytery of Coastal Carolina from Elder George Francis;
- * heard reports from Ministry Teams;
- * approved a recommendation from the Stewardship & Finance Ministry Team concerning the sale of property and called a congregational meeting for Sunday, August 9 to present the recommendation to the congregation for action.
- * included the election of the 2015 Nominating Committee on the agenda of the August 9 congregational meeting
- * approved scholarships for rising college freshmen Joseph Phaneuf and Madison Bullard;
- * accepted Jenna Carriker’s offer to head up the youth ministry program and formally endorsed and affirmed her work among us at Wallace Presbyterian Church;
- * discussed the topic of stewardship and made plans to communicate this fall the many missions and ministries of Wallace Presbyterian Church and the resources needed;
- * prayed for concerns of members and neighbors and concluded with the Lord’s Prayer.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The Session has called a
Congregational Meeting.

Sunday, August 9
Immediately following worship

Purpose:

1. To act on a recommendation from the session to sell the lot at the corner of Boney and Cumberland Streets
2. To elect the 2015 Nominating Committee for elders

Welcome to Jenna Carriker!

The session has accepted Jenna Carriker's generous offer to be our volunteer Youth Ministry coordinator. Jenna brings a wealth of knowledge and experience with Youth Ministry. She was our Children/Youth leader on the 2015 Sound Retreat and the coordinator of the multi-church Vacation Bible School at Camp Kirkwood in June. Jenna will be joining our congregation by transfer from the Topsail Presbyterian Church.

You can expect high-energy and top-quality Youth Ministry from Jenna. Get ready!
