Dr. Philip K. Gladden, Minister

AUGUST 2016

Cheryl Brinkley, Editor

Our summer reading program is progressing with nine students and many volunteers. Students have been working diligently on fluency, comprehension, analogies, language usage, and math word problems. They have been engaged and eager to learn, as our volunteers encourage and push them to do their best.

Our last day is Wednesday, August 10. We will have a hot dog lunch for our students and their families, at which time we will recognize them with certificates and a gift bags of school supplies.

GREETINGS FROM ZAMBIA!

Thursday, August 11
6:30 p.m.
Dessert Buffet

Dr. Dustin Ellington, our mission co-worker in Lusaka, Zambia, will be our guest on Thursday, August 11. Dustin will give us an update on his work at the Justo Mwale Theological University.

Bring your favorite dessert to share with your friends and join us to welcome Dustin.

Dr. Page and I hope this initial conversation will lead to more conversations and community events that will help foster good relations in our community. Obviously, we all hope our town of Wallace will never suffer a tragedy such as the killing of police officers and the controversial arrests and killings of African-American individuals. However, these recent events, even though they have happened in communities far away from Wallace, have made all of us aware of the ongoing work that needs to be done to foster better relations in our community and in all communities.

Our invitation to these community leaders has been well-received and for that James and I are very grateful. These leaders will bring to our conversation their concerns, commitment to our community, and ideas for moving forward.

A friend and colleague, Rev. Chris Currie (who used to be the minister at the Calypso Presbyterian Church in northern Duplin County) wrote to his congregation at the First Presbyterian Church in Shreveport, LA about what leaders and churches in that community are doing. I find Chris' words to be inspiring and important to hear. He wrote: "These are times when we come to realize that the church cannot simply be a private gathering of religiously interested people for the cultivation of their own private piety and religiosity. Ours is a public witness and our world needs our faith, hope, and love, as the bullets fly and the flames of rhetoric are flamed, as families grieve and our distrust of each other is used as a societal wedge to keep us from working together on the things that matter. There is no such thing as private Christianity. We are called to go to church, but that's not it. We are also called to be the church, and to trust that God will give us just what we need in these times to do just that, until Christ's kingdom comes."

Please keep all of our community leaders in your prayers as they serve us and as we gather for this important conversation on August 3. Also, pray about how our church can be a public witness to God's love and peace.

In Christ,

Phil

Qualifications of Elders

Elders should be persons of faith, dedication and good judgment. Their manner of life should be a demonstration of the Christian gospel, both within the church and in the world. (Book of Order, G-6.0106).

Ordinarily, they should have been members of this church who have been actively involved in the life of this congregation through serving as a Ministry Team member, an usher, a teacher, a lay leader or in some other program of the church

Duties of Elders

It is the duty of elders, individually and jointly, to strengthen and nurture the faith and life of the congregation committed to their charge. Together with the pastor, they should encourage the people in worship and service to God, equip and renew them for their tasks within the church and for their mission in the world, visit and comfort and care for the people with special attention to the poor, the sick, the lonely and those who are oppressed. They should inform the pastor and session of those persons and structures which may need special attention. They should cultivate their ability to teach the Bible and may be authorized to supply places which are without regular ministry of the Word and Sacrament. In specific circumstances and with proper instruction, specific elders may be authorized by the presbytery to administer the Lord's Supper in accord with G-11.0103. Those duties which all Christians are bound to perform by the law of love are especially incumbent upon elders because of their calling to office and are to be fulfilled by them as official responsibilities. The responsibilities of elders are rewarding, but make demands on time and talents. Commitment to the task which includes service on committees is essential. It is a responsibility, not just an honor, to serve the church and community as an elder.

*Call for Suggested Nominees
2016*

The Congregational Nominating Committee needs your help! We want your suggestions for nominees for election of five (5) people as elders for the session, Class of 2019.

As the Nominating Committee works to bring a balanced slate of officers to the congregation, they will give consideration not only to those who have served faithfully before, but also to those who have not held office. We also believe it important that the members of the Session are broadly representative of the congregation. Your prayerful assistance is most important.

The deadline for suggestions is August 14, 2016.

On the suggestion form at the bottom of this page, please write the person's name along with a brief statement of his or her qualifications. As you think about potential nominees, ask yourself, is the person active in the life of the church? Does he or she have the skills appropriate for the task?

To submit a suggested nominee, place this form in the offering plate or return it to the church office.

Suggestions for Elders

(Please write the person's name and a brief statement about his/her qualifications.)

I would like to suggest:

Sunday, August 7
Immediately Following Worship

The session has called a congregational meeting for Sunday, August 7 immediately following worship for the purpose of electing the 2016 Nominating Committee.

The Nominating Committee will be made up of two representatives from the Session, two representatives from Presbyterian Women, two representatives from the Sunday School Department, and a Youth representative. Rev. Philip Gladden will serve as an advisory member.

This summer is flying past and before we know it, it will be time for us to begin a new school year. I can't wait! We will begin this year with some very positive changes in our classroom.

I want to thank a benefactor who has been busy this summer helping me spruce up our classroom. They have donated a large set of blocks with a block storage cabinet and some other great additions in furnishings and resources. I can't thank them enough for their donations and support. Our classroom will have a clean, fresh look and we will have some really nice pieces to add to it. I'm looking forward to showing it to our classes this year. I know they will be really excited!

Have you tried the coffee from givingbean.com yet? We have heard from families who purchased the coffee in the spring that it's really good. And the best part? Each purchase provides the school with monetary support that helps us with future purchases and supplies. Just go to givingbean.com, click on the "find an active fundraiser" button in the upper right hand corner, scroll down to faith groups and look for PEP. Click on PEP to make sure your purchase will help us out! We thank you in advance for your support! I know you will enjoy the coffee!

As you enjoy the rest of your summer, please pray for our families we will minister to this coming year through this important ministry of the church.
