"Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Unison Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you and against one another. We name the name of Christ, but we do not make his presence real in our lives. We pay lip service to your truth, but we fear the truth about ourselves. We claim to live by faith, but we want to have our own way. We want to be free, but we avoid the discipline that would set us free. We lay claim to your promises in our need, but we feel no compassion for the needs of others. Forgive us and cleanse us, we pray, and give us new life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Lord, hear our prayers . . .

(A time for silent prayers of confession . . .)

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

*"Healer of our every ill, light of each tomorrow, give us peace beyond our fear, and hope beyond our sorrow."
Hymn #795,
"Healer of Our Every Ill," in Glory to God: The Presbyterian Hymnal*

Today's Prayer of Confession is adapted from the Disciples of Christ "Week of Compassion" website.

*You who know
our fears and sadness, grace

peace and gladness; Spirit of all comfort, fill our hearts.”*

Responsive Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Here is good news: Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

All: Jesus accepts us as we are, sets us free from evil’s power, and enables us to live new lives in him. In Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven!

Pastoral Prayer with the Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Affirmation of Faith: From "A Brief Statement of Faith" of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

We trust in Jesus Christ, Fully human, fully God.

Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed
and blessing the children, healing the sick

and binding up the brokenhearted,
eating with outcasts,
forgiving sinners,

and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition,

Jesus was crucified,

suffering the depths of human pain

and giving his life for the sins of the world.

God raised this Jesus from the dead,

vindicating his sinless life,

breaking the power of sin and evil,

delivering us from death to life eternal.

*"You who know
each thought
and feeling,
teach us all your way of healing; Spirit of compassion, fill
each heart."

SOUPER BOWL OF CARING OFFERING TODAY, FEBRUARY 7

The final score of Super Bowl LV has yet to be determined, but we already know that our Helping Hands Food Pantry at the Wallace Presbyterian Church will be a big winner because of our annual Souper Bowl of Caring Offering

This offering was started by a Presbyterian Youth Fellowship Group in South Carolina and has spread to many other organizations. All money raised nationally remains local and supports many different ministries of assistance, such as our church's food pantry.

On your way into worship on February 7, drop a few dollars into the Souper Bowl of Caring soup pots. You can also donate online at www.wallacepresbyterian.com or send your contribution to P.O. Box 717, Wallace, NC 28466. Thanks!
