FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

As thirty year old Arabella Katherine Hankey recovered from a lengthy illness in 1866, she wrote a very long poem about Jesus Christ. The first section, published in January 1866, was called "The Story Wanted." The second part, called "The Story Told," was published in November 1866. The entire poem had forty-nine four line stanzas. The second part told the story of Christ's coming, beginning with Adam and Eve's fall, through the promise of the Messiah, to the angels' appearance to the shepherds when Jesus was born in Bethlehem. The poem was set to music in 1875 and became the hymn we know as "I Love to Tell the Story."

In our Glory to God hymnal (#462), the second and third verses say, "I love to tell the story; 'tis pleasant to repeat what seems, each time I tell it, more wonderfully sweet! I love to tell the story, for some have never heard the message of salvation from God's own holy Word. I love to tell the story; for those who know it best seem hungering and thirsting to hear it, like the rest. And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song, 'twill be the old, old story that I have loved so long."

I love to tell the story of Jesus' birth in Bethlehem that we hear in Luke 2:1-20. A number of years ago, Rebecca Eddy asked me in Bible study, "What are you going to preach on Christmas Eve?" When I said, "I think Luke 2:1-20," Rebecca said, "Well, you'd better!"

So, every Christmas Eve since 1998 I have told the old, old Christmas story about the angels' visit to the shepherds and the shepherds' visit to see the baby Jesus. Luke 2:20 tells us, "The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them." I guess we can say, the shepherds were singing the new, new song!

I never get tired of preaching the old, old story from Luke 2:1-20 on Christmas Eve. "It seems, each time I tell it, more wonderfully sweet!" and "those who know it best seem hungering and thirsting to hear it, like the rest." Each year, I approach Christmas Eve wondering what message Luke will have for us as we celebrate the birth of our Savior. Each year, the old, old story brings us a new, new hope — "good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord."

If you're in town on Tuesday, December 24, please join us for our Christmas Eve Candlelight Communion service at 7:00 p.m. If you are traveling, may God bless you as you celebrate our Savior's birth with friends and family. No matter where you are this Christmas, I hope you can hear the old, old story of Jesus and his love and listen for the new, new thing God is always doing for us in Jesus Christ.

Merry Christmas!

Phil

Lighting the Advent Candles

Lighting the Advent Candles

On the four Sundays of Advent, our ruling elders will lead us in lighting the four purple candles which represent Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love. On Christmas Eve, ruling elders will light the white Christ candle. The increasing light during the four weeks of Advent reminds us of the promise of the coming of the Messiah: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness — on them light has shined." (Isaiah 9:2)
