On Saturday, January 10, our elders and minister will be on their annual session retreat. This year's retreat will be held at the Wallace Presbyterian Church in Room 304.

Our session will be worshiping, praying, studying the Bible, enjoying fellowship, and seeking to discern God's will for our congregation. Please keep our elders and minister in your prayers. They will be praying for you!

Dear Friends,

Our new hymnal, Glory to God, has many wonderful songs for us to learn in the coming weeks, months, and years. As we begin a new year and look ahead to what God has in mind for the Wallace Presbyterian Church, let me share one song from the section called “Celebrating Time.” The hymn (#684) is called “Faith Begins by Letting Go.”

Faith begins by letting go, giving up what had seemed sure, taking risks and pressing on, though the way seems less secure: pilgrimage both right and odd, trusting all our life to God.

Faith endures by holding on, keeping memory’s roots alive so that hope may bear its fruit; promise-fed, our souls will thrive, not through merit we possess but by God’s great faithfulness.

Faith matures by reaching out, stretching minds, enlarging hearts, sharing struggles, living prayer; binding up the broken parts; till we find the commonplace ripe with witness to God’s grace.

The explanatory note below the hymn says, “This text affirms that faith is not a state of being but a process of becoming what we are called to be in relationship to God, other people, and the world. The movement from one stage of faith to another is suggested by gestures of the hand: letting go, holding on, reaching out.

In this new year, as always, God’s promises are sure. In our life and ministry together, we need to ask, “What do we need to give up that seemed sure as we trust our lives to God? What do we need to hold on to that will ground us as we move ahead trusting in God’s great faithfulness? How can we reach out in the grace of God and with the love of Jesus Christ?”

Our elders and I will spend time in fellowship and prayer on Saturday, January 10 as we seek God’s guidance for the coming year. We will focus on our relationships with God and each other in the congregation. An article we will read together ends with the statement, “But none of it [different ways of reorganizing or restructuring] will work if we aren’t willing to give up all the things we love and worship more than Jesus.”

Please join your elders and me in seeking God’s guidance in 2015 as we try to give up all the things we love and worship more than Jesus, so WPC can bear a faithful witness to God’s grace.

In Christ,

Phil

ACTIONS OF THE SESSION

At the Tuesday, December 16, 2014 meeting of the session, the elders and minister:

HOW CAN YOU HELP? 2015 Session Ministry Teams

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit . . . To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. . . Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. (1 Corinthians 12:4, 7, 27)

Much of the ongoing work and ministry of the Wallace Presbyterian Church is handled through the seven session Ministry Teams. At the January session meeting, the session will be drawing up lists of potential Ministry Team members. The session needs your help.

Please review the responsibilities of the session Ministry Teams and indicate your top three choices for service. Each Ministry Team has an elder as chairperson and one or more elders as members. Ministry Team membership ranges from 8-12 members total. Every attempt will be made to honor your preference for service in 2014.

Thanks for your involvement in the life of our congregation!

Responsibilities of Ministry Teams

Christian Education: work in planning and overseeing the entire Christian Education program (e.g., Sunday School, youth groups, outdoor ministries, confirmation, LOGOS, etc.); recruit and train Sunday School teachers and youth leaders.

Building and Grounds: oversee the maintenance and development of the physical plant and grounds; be responsible for opening and closing the building on Sundays and at other times when needed; develop a long-range building and grounds maintenance plan.

Personnel: oversee all personnel matters; propose policy changes in personnel handbook as needed; conduct annual reviews of church staff.

Worship: oversee the worship life of the congregation; be responsible for ushers and nursery workers, sanctuary guild, Kirkwood Sunday, community Advent services, communion, pulpit supply.

Stewardship and Finance: oversee the financial matters of the congregation; prepare and submit the annual budget in consultation with the committees; provide for the annual audit of church accounts; evaluate and propose special offerings; be responsible for the Stewardship luncheon and program on the first Sunday of November; develop a year-round program of Stewardship education for the congregation.

Congregational Care: oversee the spiritual nurture and pastoral care of the congregation; work with/oversee Presbyterians Dining Together (PDT); develop and implement a new member

WELCOME TO OUR NEW ELDERS!

Class of 2015

Curt Simpson is a real estate broker who grew up in the Beulaville, N.C., Presbyterian Church. A member of Wallace Presbyterian since 2001, he and his wife Regina have just opened Simpson Real Estate Group, Inc., at 101 W Main Street, Wallace. Curt is assistant to Regina in the pre-school Sunday School class. Over the years, he has served on the Building and Grounds, Stewardship and Finance, Technology and Communications, and Christian Education ministry teams. "Being an elder has been one of the most rewarding things that I've ever done," he says. "I really appreciate all of the support and prayers from the congregation in the last three years." Curt has been on the session for the last three years and will be filling the unexpired term of Elder Bill Saunders in the Class of 2015.

Class of 2017

Wayne Casteen has been a member of Wallace Presbyterian Church since marrying Karla, our music director. A native of Rose Hill, Wayne is a graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School and UNC-Chapel Hill. He is Vice President of Human Resources at Murphy-Brown LLC. Wayne has served as an elder in the past and has been church treasurer for years. He has chaired a pastor search committee, plays in the Attie Carlton Handbell Choir, and is active in the Sunday School department and many other areas in our church. He and Karla have two sons, Zach and his wife, Andrea, and daughter, Adlyn Jo, and Grayson.

Vera S. Coombs has been our organist since February 2000 and a member since December 2001. She teaches piano, has been involved in our weekly LOGOS ministry, and has served as an elder before. Vera is married to Roger Coombs. They have two children, Madelyn (12) and Robert (6).

George Francis grew up in Charleston, WV, and is a graduate of Culver Military Academy and of Denison University. After retiring from working with Information Technology with The Hartford Financial Services Group, George earned a degree in Mathematics Education and taught at the university level, where he also served as the Faculty Mentor to the Women’s Soccer team. George and his wife, Mary, moved to River Landing in 2012. He transferred his membership from the First Church of Christ, Hartford, CT where he was active for twenty-eight years (chaired a pastor search committee, Board of Christian Education, treasurer, and deacon). Mary is an active member at the Transfiguration Catholic Church in Wallace. George is currently teaching Math at Coastal Carolina Community College and is active at WPC in the Sunday School and LOGOS programs.

Jim Sills has been a member of the Wallace Presbyterian Church for ten years. During that time, Jim has served as an elder, a member of the Christian Education Ministry Team, youth leader, and Sunday School Teacher (Margaret Hall Glasgow Class). Jim also preaches at our church and in other area Presbyterian churches. Jim works for the Fayetteville Publishing Company. He is married to Danielle. They have two children, Elizabeth (12) and James (10).

CONGRATULATIONS!

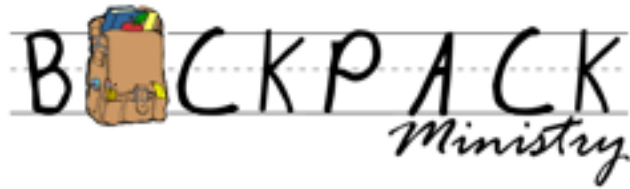

To Jason and Mary Laine Rouse on the birth of their son, Lane Philip Rouse, on December 31, 2014 (7 lbs., 4 oz.; 20 inches). J.J. is his proud big brother!

To Rev. Lauren Deer who will be sworn in as Chaplain for the Wallace Police Department on Thursday, January 8.

To the family of Rebecca Eaddy who died on December 22, 2014.

To Jan Zoesch on the death of her father on December 26, 2014.

FEED OUR HUNGRY CHILDREN & BACKPACK MINISTRY OFFERING

Sunday, January 25

We collect this offering on the fourth Sunday of each month during the school year. Our offering is combined with donations from other area churches, businesses, and individuals to provide school lunches and backpacks of food for the weekends for public school children whose families are experiencing financial difficulties. Thanks for your contributions!
