Beloved,

This month we will celebrate two special holidays: Mother's Day and Memorial Day. These holidays give us pause to remember and give thanks for our indebtedness to others for most everything that is important to us: our lives, our faith, our values, our freedoms...

Every time we gather here in the church, we join our praise with the voices of the saints who have preceded us, friends on earth and friends above. Faith is a gift. You may not think it is, but it truly is a gift.

We believe only because someone lived this faith before us and told us the story and embodied those beliefs in a manner that was worthy of our imitation. These are the mothers and grandmothers of our families, but there also the mothers and grandmothers of our faith, of the church. We are the children of their faith. The church is only ever one generation away from extinction. None of us ever have been or ever will be a self-made believer.

My mother's fiancé at the time, Harold Brandt, was killed on D-Day, June 6, 1944, on the beaches of Normandy. Her emotion in singing the patriotic hymns in worship, the national anthem at a ball game, and other acts of remembrance made a deep impression on my faith and life.

Children don't always hear everything we say, but they see everything we do. So make time to remember those who sacrificed for our sakes after the manner of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. You never know who may be watching.

Faithfully,

Pastor Robb

Debbie Price will be glad to answer any questions you may have. She can be reached at 757-408-0964 or duprice525@gmail.com.

Holy Cow! You're Almost Out Of Time!

The last day to take the Holy Cow! Congregation Assessment Tool (CAT) is Saturday, May 4. The CAT will provide us with key indicators of our congregational health along with areas of challenge and potential growth. If you have not done so already, please take 30 minutes and complete it.

The CAT will help the Session and Transitional Ministry Team have a better understanding of the range of views that exist at Wallace Presbyterian Church and the possibilities, willingness, capacity and energy for moving our ministry into the future. This will be used in the creation of our Mission Statement which is required before we can form our Pastor Nominating Committee.

Thank you to all who have taken the survey. It is appreciated.
