Recognition and Installation of Christian Education Leaders for 2016-2017

Dear Friends,

"Ministry is, first of all, receiving God's blessing from those to whom we minister. What is this blessing? It is a glimpse of the face of God." The esteemed spiritual writer, Henri Nouwen, makes this point in his book, A Spirituality of Fundraising. He goes on to say, "Fundraising is a subject we seldom think about from a spiritual perspective. From the perspective of the gospel, fundraising is not a response to a crisis. Fundraising is, first and foremost, a form of ministry. Fundraising is proclaiming what we believe in such a way that we offer other people an opportunity to participate with us in our vision and mission."

Our Stewardship & Finance Ministry Team will be guiding us this fall through a stewardship campaign from a spiritual perspective. A key piece of this fall's program is an "all church read" of Henri Nouwen's book. I encourage you to be an active participant in this group read and discussion of Nouwen's helpful and challenging way to think about how we can be good stewards of the gifts God has given us.

The "all church read" will take place during the month of September. The session asks that you purchase a copy of Nouwen's book, read it, and stay after worship on Sunday, October 2 for a soup and sandwich lunch and a group discussion of the book. This "all church read" will be an important activity we can all do together as a congregation. Folks who have read Nouwen's book say it is thought-provoking, inspiring, challenging, and an enjoyable, easy read (about 30 minutes).

There will be 20 copies available in the church office if you would like to "check one out" to read and return in a timely manner, so other folks can use the resource.

Here is information about how you can order your own copy of the book or an online edition.

The paperback version is available for $6.99 at www.cokesbury.com and $4.49 at www.barnesandnoble.com.

The ebook version is available for $4.26 for Kindle, Kindle Fire, Apple, Android, Nook, Kobo, PC, Mac, & Blackberry at www.NuuRoo.com.

Thanks for being a part of our "all church read" and for being a generous congregation.

In Christ,

Phil

PRESBYTERIAN ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

Have you taken a peek into the PEP classroom lately? If not, you're in for a big surprise! It has been updated and improved immensely this summer! We have a huge new block cabinet and new blocks, so many that it was difficult to fit them all in the cabinet! And we have a beautiful new kitchen set with lots of new items! Our students are going to be so excited! I can't wait for them to see it in just a few days.

We are still in need of some new resources and you can help us with that! We have our first fundraiser of the year coming up on Saturday, September 24. We will be hosting the Saturday plant sale at Johnson's Nursery where there will be plenty of mums, shrubs, and other plants. You know you will want to add some fall color to your house and yard, so come on out and support us while beautifying your house! And, as always, we have our continuing fundraiser at givingbean.com where you can buy delicious coffee and help us too! Just go to the link, click on the "find an open fundraiser" button in the upper right hand corner, and look for PEP under faith groups. We get a portion of each sale.

We still have plenty of room to welcome other students for the coming year. If you have friends or family members still looking for a great preschool, please take them an application. We have plenty on the bulletin board beside the canopied entrance. Thank you for all your support!

Dee Thompson, P.E.P. Director

Congratulations and thanks to our 2016 Presbyterian Enrichment Program (P.E.P.) Board of Directors

When we reflect on the many blessings God continues to bestow on us, we naturally seek ways to thank him ...to return to Him at least a small portion of His generosity to us. If you feel blessed, and want to share your blessings, you may be asking "how can I best give back to God?" Our Stewardship program is one good answer. In the words of Peter (1 Peter 4:10), "Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms"

Your Stewardship ministry team can help you with that. We're going to make it easier for you to contribute by introducing a number of alternative ways to contribute financially, and we will be publicizing the many programs in need of time and talent contributions as well. Joining our Stewardship Ministry team is a good first option!

We also will be asking for your pledge soon, in support of our 2017 budget process. Please plan on pledging so we can better plan and manage our finances. I doubt if any of you would be comfortable in not knowing what your income will be next year. We're in the same boat if you don't pledge. Start now to think and pray about your giving for next year.

And now, when you think about your recent giving history, are you satisfied?, or uncomfortable? Have you given to the level you expected? Can you do a little better? We are running a significant deficit this year, which we need to erase. Let's see what we can all do to respond to how richly God has blessed us.

Thank you, and may God continue to richly bless you.

Nick Baker and the Stewardship Ministry team

Childcare will be provided for the youngest children.

To give us a general idea of how much food to prepare, if you think you will join us, please add your name to the list on the clipboard in the back of the Fellowship Hall, or send an email to logos.wpc@gmail.com.

to play
Michael Helman's
"Prayer for Peace"
on Sunday, September 11

On the fifteenth anniversary of 9/11, the Attie Carlton Handbell Choir will play Michael Helman's "Prayer for Peace" during worship. The choir presented this multi-media piece on the tenth anniversary of 9/11.

The composer was profoundly moved by his visit to Ground Zero at the end of September 2001. He also played for the funeral of a young man killed at the Pentagon on 9/11. He wrote, "What could I do to help? I set pen to paper and poured out my feelings and my prayers in music. My hope is that this composition may be a prayer for an end to terrorism and for peace throughout the world."
