James "Jimmy" Crayton was born and raised in Stedman, NC. He received his undergraduate degree at Methodist University double majoring in Criminal Justice and Sociology. He then attended Basic Law Enforcement Training at Fayetteville Technical Community College and was later hired as a Police Officer at Smithfield Police Department. He has also completed his Master's in Justice Administration. He is also a graduate of the West Point Leadership Program. In 2017, Jimmy was hired as the Chief of Police for the Town of Wallace in Duplin County. The sole purpose of changing jobs was so he could be closer to his heart and soul, his son, Eli. Crayton currently resides in Wallace with his wife, Marney, son Eli (14), and baby Charlotte, (18 months).
